

Since signing up for the "Do Not Call" we finally have peaceful dinners and ensuing evenings. There is no reason to weaken or "ammend" the NJ law. Of course the telemarketers keep trying to call on our FAX number which is not on the "Do Not Call" list. That is much easier to ignore, Nevertheless, we should not have to be forced to deal with this stuff just because we have a listed telephone number.